

Things you need to know as a SENCO

Friday 10 November / AM & PM Session / £125 per delegate

An essential, on message half-day seminar to support school leaders, SENCOs and teachers to consider how effectively the SEND reforms are being implemented in their school. The seminar will also include a facilitated networking session as an opportunity to share good practice.

Benefits of attending:

- Find out about the latest changes in SEN policy and practice
- Understand the expectations from Ofsted surrounding the framework for SEN
- Have an opportunity to reflect on implementation of the SEND reforms in your school, considering what's going well and future areas for development
- Share best practice with other colleagues
- Take away tools of best practice
- Network with other professionals

Who should attend:

- School leaders
- SENCOs and Inclusion Coordinators
- Teachers
- Other senior leaders
- Governors

Natalie Packer

Natalie is an educational consultant specialising in SEN and school improvement. She has SENCO and headship experience and is the author of the bestselling publication 'The Perfect SENCO'. Natalie is an associate consultant for NASEN. She is a trainer for the Outstanding Teaching Intervention and her training style is described as inspirational and practical.

Venue: Pype Hayes Golf Course, Eachellhurst Road, Sutton Coldfield, B76 1EP

Time: 10am - 12:30pm (AM Session) / 1:30pm - 4pm (PM Session)

Cost: £125.00 per delegate

Visit www.drblearning.co.uk to book your place!